

Seafood Industry Victoria Strategic Plan 2008-2010

“Seafood Industry Victoria will continue building and informing a united and ecologically sustainable and thriving industry valued by the Victorian community”

OUR STRATEGIC OBJECTIVES

Promote responsible resource use

Increase certainty of access to the resource

Improve industry relations

Improve government relations

Increase industry profitability by reducing costs

Increase the value that the community attributes to the seafood industry

Provide responsive and effective management of SIV

Ecologically Sustainable Development (ESD)

THROUGH THESE KEY STRATEGIES

- Achieving improved resource protection
- Allocation processes that are open and transparent
- Development of fishery management plans
- Implementation of management practices that minimise the impact on industry
- Take up and implementation of EMS and codes of best practice
- Access to relevant and reliable data and research

- Ensuring any change to the fishing industries access to the resource protects the fishing industries rights. Any change to those rights results in commensurate compensation/ adjustment being paid.
- Enhancing the access rights of the fishing industry
- Animal welfare
- Aquaculture

- Developing and implementing a strategy that improves and enhances communication
- Engaging members and relevant industry bodies
- Promotion of the work and achievements of SIV
- Community education programs
- Providing assistance to key sectors

- Increasing partnerships with government
- Continuing to foster open and transparent process
- Engaging stakeholders through improved communications and consultation processes

- Implementing the cost recovery framework
- Developing an agreed policy on royalty
- Developing and agreeing a policy on unitization
- Providing assistance to key sectors
- Greater take up of training to enhance industry skills
- Encourage provision of extension services to achieve industry growth

- Developing strategies which support community projects and high value initiatives of benefit to particular communities and SIV
- Establishing a foundation

- Reviewing the rules and structure of SIV to ensure effective delivery of services and advocacy to SIV members
- Succession planning for SIV, staff, board and committee members

- Adaptation of strategies to reduce the impacts of climate change